

Listen, with the big companies trying to take over every channel, we need the option to spend a few dollars a month to get non-stop radio with out 20 minute comml breaks. The local aspect is even better with traffic and weather. So why not, what is wrong with a lilittle competition!We love our XM Satellite radio, it is good and you big radio companies know that--so leave 'em alone!! Paul & Cheryl